

MEET THE SPEAKERS

Natalie Gil, Research Fellow & Trainee Health Psychology Practitioner, University of Surrey

When: Saturday 18th April, 11.30am

Session: Complex Health Challenges

Topic: Learning disabilities in cancer care

Natalie Gil is a Research Fellow in Health Inequalities at the University of Surrey and trainee Health Psychology practitioner.

She recently completed her PhD on inequities in cancer diagnosis and care for people with a learning disability. Her current work focuses on identifying scalable innovations to improve equitable access to cancer pathways.

>> Find out more – Visit the Conference Website